

a Encoding and retrieval use only information available in the original task

b Staged optimization and the delayed learning signal

During held-out evaluation all model weights are frozen; only within-trial episodic memories change.