

a Encoding and retrieval use only information available in the original task

b The endpoint is learned from prediction outcomes, not supplied as a target Exact credit is a diagnostic. The stronger test uses only sampled delayed reward. Evaluation freezes all weights and uses unseen mappings.